ARTICLE1 & FAGE CALL TEHE M12 STUDENTS FOR MUTUAL AID DURING QUARANTINE

VIA #VIRAL SUCCESS PLAN

Paris, Washington DC, 19.03.2020, 21:34 Time

USPA NEWS - As of Monday morning, 12 million students and apprentices have been at home. In this crucial period for the bac and the orientation of hundreds of thousands of high school students, Article 1 and FAGE are sounding the alarm about the risk of dropping out of young people from disadvantaged backgrounds. Indeed, although the authorities and actors of education have set up platforms and tools to ensure pedagogical continuity, all high school students cannot count on the help of their entourage and their parents the same way. To tackle this problem, Article 1 associations and FAGE are mobilizing by launching an appeal to all students! Through the #SuccessVirale shared on the different social networks of Article 1 and FAGE, students can commit, during this troubled period, to help a high school student in their academic success.

ARTICLE 1 AND FAGE ARE PART OF THE CALL OF NATIONAL UNION AND SOLIDARITY OVER COVID-19 OUTBREAK
Thus, Article 1 and FAGE are part of the call for national union and solidarity of President Emmanuel Macron to provide the poorest students with the support they need: help with homework, revisions, moral support , bac preparation .... Our associations are convinced that students are ready to get involved and support students from working class backgrounds who need it most.----------
"With good academic results, high school students from modest backgrounds are three times less likely to consider higher education than those from privileged backgrounds. So in this exceptional period of confinement, these young people are more isolated than ever from their education. The risk of them dropping out is very high. "Alert Boris Walbaum and Benjamin Blavier, co-founders of the Article 1 association.----------
All volunteer students are welcome (whatever their training, level of study, etc.), all they need to do is register at the following link: http: / /bit.ly/ReussiteVirale Then the teams of # RéussiteVirale will put high school students in touch with students on the basis of the subjects on which they will have positioned themselves. Help with homework, revisions, moral support, preparation for the bac ... students are ready to get involved and support the high school students who need it most. Beyond mutual aid, students can also support high school students in their orientation project. The Parcoursup platform will close its doors on April 2 (no date has been announced), and some have not yet completed their file. For those who cannot find advice from those around them, the task becomes even more complicated. The student scouts of Inspire-orientation.org remain mobilized throughout the confinement period to answer questions free of charge for all students in 1st and 12th grade and to testify about their studies * students working voluntarily for the Article 1 association.
